

Books In Sync Author Spotlight Interview With Carole M. Lidgold

Q: What makes you proud to be a writer from Canada?

A: I am proud to be able to fill a need, such as the only one to write and publish The History of The Guild Inn which began in 1932 and no one did that.

Q: What or who inspired you to become a writer?

A: I just write because the words come and I have to write them down or I will be constantly bothered by the words.

Q: When did you begin writing with the intention of becoming published?

A: 17 years ago when I self-published my books.

Q: Did your environment or upbringing play a major role in your writing and why?

A: I was a stay at home mother for 14 years and that gave me time to write.

Q: Do you come up with your title (s) before or after you write the manuscript (s)?

A: Before

Q: Tell us why you write the genre (s) that you write?

A: I write in many genres - History, fiction, poetry, children's. The words come so they must be written down.

Q: Tell us your most rewarding experience while in the writing process?

A: Finishing a major project.

Q: Tell us your most negative experience while in the writing process?

A: Always having to get up when in bed to write down my thoughts.

Q: Tell us your most rewarding experience in your publishing journey?

A: Selling books, having people give me rave reviews of the ones they buy.

Q: Tell us your most negative experience in your publishing journey?

A: Having to lug books around from craft sale to craft sale.

Q: What one positive piece of advice would you give to other authors?

A: Never say you can't do it, or let other people say it can't be done.

Q: Who is your favorite author?

A: LM Montgomery, Dickens

Q: What Format (s) are your books in: Print Only.....E-Book Only....or Both?

A: Print only

Please tell us the titles of your current book (s):
