Books In Sync Literary Reviews

Book Review Service

Book Reviews are offered to Books In Sync Authors only. This new service will be carried out on a first come first served basis.

A member of the BIS review team will read your book and write a 150-300 word review. The review will be honest and unbiased. The review will be posted to your book at Amazon.com and Barnes and Noble.com. It will be added to your author page. It will also be featured in the Books In Sync Blog and in the BIS Newsletter. You will also receive a PDF Tear Sheet copy for your own use on your other sites and blogs.

BIS reviewers will not sell review copies.

Books In Sync does not pay postage. Books In Sync is not responsible for books lost in the postal system. Each review will have a brief description of the story, but not enough to spoil the book for the reader. The reviewer will describe what he liked or didn't like about the characters and plot and why. The review will explain who will be interested in the book and why.

Reviews can take up to 4 weeks after the reviewer receives the book.

Reviews are a no extra charge service for BIS authors only.

Contact me about a review.

Meet New Author Jan Lobek

Jan Lobek

Jan Lobeck is a wife, mother and grandmother. Her simple, calm, safe life was hurled into a nightmare over night. After the murder of her daughter, she became a strong advocate against domestic violence and decided she needed to tell her story hoping to save others.

She is involved with the

New Mexico Victims of Homicide in her hometown, and a volunteer for CASA (Court appointed special Advocate Association, for children).

She has traveled to Santa Fe New Mexico and to Washington DC speaking out against domestic violence. Being dedicated to helping other victims, she has appeared on radio shows and a national TV talk show.

Not in Vain

After the tragic murder of our oldest daughter by my husband, I was compelled to do something to help other victims of Domestic Violence. I have been forced to be an advocate against a horrible crime that I did not know existed. Not wanting my daughter's death to be in vain; I have had a God Everything changed in May of 2004. Our lives changed forever!"

Not In Vain

Not In Vain

driven force to tell our story and hopefully reach the law enforcement agencies to make them realize how horrible Domestic Violence is and that they should take Domestic Violence calls seriously and as a crime, not just as a disturbance. My hope is to reach other victims and to help all communities understand that we can stop Domestic Violence if we work together.

Shortly after our daughter's death, I realized that if I could tell our story and could get it published I could help other families from going through the horrible senseless pain that our family has endured. Right away the title came to me "Not In Vain". I was not sure what God wanted me to do with it until I started reading my journal, my notes and listening to my tape recordings of the events. It was at that time, I realized that this man not only murdered our daughter, he almost killed my whole family. After years of separation and pain, our family did survive. Everything changed in May of 2004. Our lives changed forever!

Meet Multi-Book Author Terry Fulgham

I was born in the early forty's in Flint, Michigan. I am a recovered alcoholic/drug user who started using when I was 12 years old. At age 40 I was Blessed with hearing the words of God in my heart spiritually speaking to me. I had decided with the Lords help that now was the time for me to look at the way my life has been blessed rather than how I felt I had been cursed. For over twenty nine years I had been living a Lie, Ruining Family, Friends, Fail Marriage's and Relationships, not seeing that I have been truly blessed with Hobbies and Accomplishments that I have very much enjoyed over the years.

I had been battling with myself and others. Until I came to realized that the Lord has been speaking to me over the years while I was having an internal war with myself. Not really understanding that I had a deaf ear of everything that was good around me. For years life seemed to turn a cold shoulder to my hope of ever thinking that I would be anything more than a loser. To overcome these feeling I had to believe in myself or I would be lost forever.

Blessings are gifts from God; you can't steal, borrow, or give away your Blessings....

Have faith in the lord and be blessed,

Terry Fulgham

Terry's Books

Terry Fulgham is the author of two books Battling the Blessings and Garden Of Souls.

Battling the Blessings is an Autobiography of one mans struggle of courage and hope and his personal journey through years of alcoholic/drug addiction, failed marriage, family life, illness, and finally self – discovery.

Garden Of Souls is a story based on fiction that could actually be a true story because of its story context. This story is about two men, Peter Knight and George Martin, whose lives seem to cross paths over their teenage years and on through adulthood. Though they were never friends, by some unusual force in the universe, they feel this strange closeness to each other.

Meet Charles Walter Wooten -Letters From A Chinese Angel

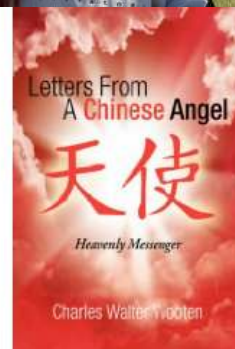

Charles Walter Wooten was born and raised in North Carolina; educated in N.C., S.C., and Colorado, where he received a Master's degree from CU-Boulder in Education/English. Taught in the public schools over 25 years, and taught English overseas in Mainland China & Taiwan.-Became inspired to write a novel, based upon these experiences, entitled, Letters From A Chinese Angel. His book is available to patrons of the Broomfield Public Library, the city where he lives. He is married with three adult children and 5 grand-children; enjoys outdoor activities, including skiing, mountaineering, hiking, and camping. His book was published & copyrighted in 2007.

Letters From A Chinese Angel is an exciting novel which begins in the Preface with scene of the 1989 massacre of innocent Chinese citizens in Beijing by their own government; then shifting in the Prologue to the next scene of a miraculous escape from disaster on the Matterhorn by the main character, Professor J.C. McBryde; then the story becomes a series of flashbacks from 1992 in Aspen to 1990 in Hong Kong, Mainland China, and beyond...Two American professors who go to China to teach English are caught up in a series of incredible adventures...The reader enters a world of mystery, adventure, and romance, with an inspirational message of hope, faith, & love.-Highly recommended as a family-oriented adventure story.- A story the author felt needed to be told.-He was there himself as an English instructor.-Though fiction, this book is based upon the author's personal experiences.

Meet Multi-Book Author Kathi Wyldeck

Kathi Wyldeck writes books as a hobby on family & educational games, and also on grammar & writing workbooks. She has worked as a biological technician in molecular genetics and endocrinology research in hospitals and universities, but switched careers in her forties to tutoring in English, science, German and general knowledge to children and teenagers after school and to ESL adults during school hours. Her interests over the years have included scouting, hiking, surfing, skiing, sky-diving, hot-air ballooning, astronomy, history, photography and world travel.

Seeing that the children enjoyed the book and learnt their grammar successfully from it, I sent it around the Australian educational publishers, and after quite a lot of rejections, I was finally lucky enough to have it accepted for publication by Pascal Press, one of the top educational publishers in Australia. The book sold like hotcakes, and so Pascal invited me to write another book on spelling and grammar. It also became a best seller. From that time on, I took up writing as a serious hobby. When I became a Cub Scout Leader, I changed directions, and started specializing in games books for fun, fitness and learning.

Kathi is from New South Wales Australia. She has written and published 2 books (Pascal Press), 7 mini-books (Always Learning Books), and 10 self-published books (Lulu Press).
