

Past, Present & Forever Book Reviews:

Per my recommendation, your book has received a CTRR (Coffee Time Reviewer's Recommend Award) from Coffee Time Romance & More. This award recognizes outstanding writing styles in all book types and genres. Your book has received this award because I feel it is above and beyond a 5 Cup Rating.

This story made me laugh and cry, often at the same time. So much emotion in one story, and every bit of it hit me in the heart. Thank you for allowing me to review such a treasure! It made my day. I often get to review good, sometimes great, books. It is not often I get to that one book which will stick in my heart for all time.

Review: "I have to say what a marvelous story this is. Laughter and tears mingle with each other as I read Jack and Lizzie's story. The emotions of the characters radiate off the pages. From the pain of losing Mariposa Clark to the love this couple shares, the feelings play havoc within my heart. Past, Present and Forever is such a touching tale filled with love and passion. I believe every woman needs a best friend like Lizzie's. Someone who will have your back, yet will lend you a shoulder should you need it. K.M. Daughters writes a relatable book about family, friendship and finding love where you may least expect it."
