

The Imagination Of A Stay At Home Mom Book Excerpt

Casanova's Poems

Seen Through My Eyes

He is a young man

He is a very good poet

Like many on this site are

But I would like to take a moment

With his permission of course

To do something with the titles of some of his poems

The titles will be in blue

How much of an impression have I made

On you or anyone for that matter

I Stand here wondering if I was never

Actually to meet you would you remember

The picture you S. A . W . of me

Would you want to Reach out and touch me

Would you remember our talk about the Castle

Would you think of me as the Gentle Beauty as in the Monarch

Butterfly that flew by you earlier today in Stratford Park

Or would you not remember me at all

Or Will you remember me?
